Fantasy Garden is a Facebook based social game, city (village) builder game, free to play on Facebook, from Enixan Entertainment and 6waves.

It seems that in Fantasy Garden your dreams come true, well, least that's what producers say. In a wood of dreams the player can image everything he want: can create amazing creatures, build magic building and travel in dreams. Players can visiting their friends' gardens and completing tasks. They are guided from one task to another by quests.
