- Dynamic Art Powered by Unreal Engine 4 - Inspired by the real-life street basketball courts in the country, the artists have infused their own unique take on the courts using the power provided by the Unreal Engine 4. Interactive environments and characters come to life when a player pulls off a stunning alley-oop or hits an impossible acrobatic shot.

- Characters With Unique Skill Sets - Players can pick from a wide variety of diverse street basketball characters with specific skill sets and physical traits inspired by the different kinds of basketball players you will find on the court. Whether the player wants a tall, lanky rim protector, a gravity-defying slam dunk artist, who can bury the outside shot with ease, they can find them in 3on3 FreeStyle's roster of characters.
