Firefall will be a team-based shooter, a mash-up of FPS and MMO Game.

"Firefall Founders Packages - Hey everyone! Friday, August 24th, 2012 was a historical point in Firefall history. Since the announcement of Firefall, people have been asking, "How will Firefall be supported?" Our answer has always been that we will sell convenience and cosmetic items through microtransactions. Now, for the first time ever, users can experience first-hand a small sample of the premium items we plan to offer more of in the future.

This is a very special moment for us at Red 5 Studios and we are very excited to be able to share this with you. Starting at PAX, we are going to be offering Founders Packages for sale. Since we hold PAX very near and dear to our hearts, in part due to our announcement of Firefall two years ago at PAX, we are also offering a discount on the Founders Packages during PAX weekend! To top it all off, PAX attendees will also get their very own Merch pet if they purchase a Founders Package at PAX! We are offering three different packages for Firefall fans, starting at $15 (sale price). Each tier offers bonuses for the Founders beyond the Red Beans awarded. Be sure to check out the sale prices, and remember, the sale only lasts for the weekend of PAX! Founders Packages will be sold at regular price for a limited time following PAX."^{OFFICIAL SITE}
